Re: Internship with the General Legal Division: Mr. Alberto Finocchiaro

Mr. Alberto Finocchiaro was an intern in the General Legal Division of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations from 5th September 2001 to 2nd November 2001. During that time, Mr. Finocchiaro provided helpful assistance to several legal officers in conducting legal research on various issues on which our advice had been sought.

Assignments that Mr. Finocchiaro successfully completed include research on labour law/comparative law in relation to the United Nations Administrative Tribunal; analysis of international conventions on terrorism; research and analysis of resolution of contracts in US contract law; research and analysis on extra-contractual responsibility in Italian law; research of General Assembly documents.

Mr. Finocchiaro carried out his assignments with great enthusiasm and in a laudable and efficient manner. Mr. Finocchiaro conducted himself in a courteous manner, and worked well with other colleagues in the multi-cultural environment of the Division. We wish him success in whatever professional endeavours he pursues.

Sincerely yours,
